

AWARENESS MITIGATION

GUIDE

PREPAREDNESS - GOOD PRACTICES

- Stock up
- Have a plan
- Having extra water and non-perishable foods
- Stocking up fuel for generators
- Stacking firewood for Homes
- Fueling up vehicles
- Stocking up on Pet Food
- Stocking up on medications
- Make sure flashlights have fresh batteries
- Having proper attire for the conditions: boots, jackets, hats, gloves, etc.
- Vehicle inspection such as tire condition/tread, topping off oil, washer, and other fluids.
- Kids know how to get ahold of parents at work
- CHECKING ON ELDERS AND NEIGHBORS THAT MAY BE IN NEED.

AWARENESS - HELPFUL CONTACTS

DEPARTMENT CONTACTS

Yurok Tribe – Office of Emergency Services www.yurokoes.org
707-482-1425

Yurok Tribe – Police Department www.yuroktribe.org/yurok-tribal-police
707-482-8185 (non-emergency)

YHHS www.yuroktribe.org/health-and-human-services
707-482-1377

Yurok Tribe – Fire Department
530-625-1900

HELPFUL LINKS

National Weather Service – National Weather Service

Cal Trans Road Conditions – <https://roads.dot.ca.gov/>

Highway 101 Road Cameras – Smith River webcams on Highway 101, Del Norte County in Northern California (northcoastaviation.com)

Highway 299 Road Cameras –

http://northcoastaviation.com/route_299/berry_vista_point.htm

Highway 199 Road Cameras –

http://northcoastaviation.com/route_199/route_199.htm

MITIGATION - STRATEGIES

Accept - Drive at a slower pace, giving additional room to other vehicles

Avoid - Do not drive during inclement weather

Transfer - Use an alternate route that is less weather prone

Reduce - Drive during daytime and not at night

Hedge - Have a backup plan – work from home

Please remember, for a verifiable emergency, dial 9-1-1